The Tournament last evening was a brilliant affair throughout; the fencing, combat, music—every thing, passed off to the satisfaction of the large audience in attendance. It strikes us that these Tournaments are among the most interesting exhibitions that could be at the present time given our citizens. The gentlemen connected with the Tournament waited their right to contend for the prizes, and yielded them for the competition of the youthful fencers. 1st Prize was awarded to Master W.
Howard; 2d, to Charles Clegg; 3d, to Joseph Hughes; 4th, to Master Jackson. The Committee were unable to decide between Master Schenck and Phillips, and was awarded to them
"in common." The participants the 5th and 6th young, acquitted themselves well and gallantly, and gave their auditors great pleasure. We hope that entertainments of this kind will be occasionally given by those who have so well acquired the use of arms. It will have the effect of introducing a pleasant change in the list of amusements with which we are familiar.
While we are in this connection we would observe that we learn a grand Field Tournament is talked of, to come off some time the present season. Such a project, well gotten up, would be a very grand affair. Is there any probability of its accomplishment?

GRAND FIDELITY EXERCISES.—There is at this time a very commendable spirit at work among our citizens in regard to furnishing their halls with good libraries. This is right, and the effort should be encouraged by our citizens.
This spirit shows plainly that the Dayton Firemen have a proper conception of the advantages of reading, and the requirements of the times. In order to acquire books, the several companies have adopted various plans, and are we learn, succeeding tolerably well.
The "Independents" have, we are informed, decided to give a grand pic-nic excursion; and the time has been set for Friday the 27th inst.—
They have chosen a delightful location in the neighborhood of Higgins Station, on the Western Road, about 7 miles from the city, where they cannot fail to have a pleasant time, if the weather prove fine. The tickets for the trip—including Railroad fare—will be $1 for a gentleman and two ladies. This is certainly very inviting;
and all good folks are cordially invited to accompany the "Independents" on the occasion.
They hope in this way to provide for a delightful trip, and at the same time to secure funds to assist in purchasing a library. Remember the 27th, and get ready.

A gentleman who resides in the neighborhood informs us that the "hog cholera" has made its appearance among the porkers in the vicinity of Dayton. He says that on Friday last Mr. Hiser, who resides a few miles below this city, lost eight hogs by this disease.—
When attacked, the hog commenced reeling, soon fell over, and in less than five minutes after the attack was dead. Several other gentlemen in that neighborhood lost hogs in the same way on Saturday and Sunday. There seemed to be no help for them.

Is our market master aware that little or no regard is paid to the ordinance relating to the hour in the morning at which persons are permitted to sell and buy? There is neither
"let of hindrance" to the buying and selling prior to 5 o'clock in the morning. Citizens, dealers at second-hand—all buy any time they please. This is notorious; is it right?

Go it Boys!—The sale of Eastern boots, shoes, etc., is being continued at No. 79, Jefferson st. There will be sales this evening and they will continue till the whole stock is sold. As some persons have taken up the notion that Mr. Davis is selling out to close business, we will state that such is not the case; he is, rather, preparing to go into business right. He will not hereafter keep eastern work, but will supply all who give him orders, with the best and newest of custom work. Call in this afternoon and evening, and buy bargains in eastern work.

The Dayton Gazette learns from private source that a destructive fire occurred in Lebanon on Sunday morning last. The stable of the Warren Hotel was burned, together with six horses, several buggies and carriages, besides hay, grain, &c. So sudden was the castastrophe that it was impossible to get the horses out. The noted and valuable stallion Castro M. Clay, Jr., was among the animals destroyed. The stable of Mr. Tolson, across the alley from the Warren stable, was also destroyed, but its contents were mostly saved.

The Shells have just received a large lot of No. 1 oranges, which cannot be exceeded even in the orange groves. They have also just received a large quantity of other good things. For particulars call and see—corner of Main and Third.

The Steamer Vigo, just in, has war news two days later than the Nova Scotia; but the telegraph wires being out of order it could not be telegraphed to New York.— Great speculation is afoot in New York as to the character of her information about the war.

fencers. 1st Prize was awarded to Master W.
Hughes; 4th, to Master Jackson. The Committee were unable to decide between Master
Schenck and Phillips, and was awarded to them
young, acquitted themselves well and gallantly,
list of amusements with which we are familiar.
While we are in this connection we would
present season. Such a project, well gotten up,
probability of its accomplishment?

effort should be encouraged by our citizens.
we learn, succeeding tolerably well.
The "Independents" have, we are informed,
decided to give a grand pic-nic excursion; and
prove fine. The tickets for the trip—including Railroad fare—will be $1 for a gentleman and
two ladies. This is certainly very inviting;
and all good folks are cordially invited to ac-
company the "Independents" on the occasion.
They hope in this way to provide for a delight-
27th, and get ready.

borhood informs us that the "hog cholera" has
last Mr. Hiser, who resides a few miles below
this city, lost eight hogs by this disease.—
When attacked, the hog commenced reeling,
seemed to be no help for them.

"let of hindrance" to the buying and selling
prior to 5 o'clock in the morning. Citizens,
dealers at second-hand—all buy any time they
please. This is notorious; is it right?

Go it Boys!—The sale of Eastern boots,
shoes, etc., is being continued at No. 79,
Jefferson st. There will be sales this evening
and they will continue till the whole stock
evening, and buy bargains in eastern work.

just received a large quantity of other good
of Main and Third.

The Steamer Vigo, just in, has war
news two days later than the Nova Scotia;
but the telegraph wires being out of order
war.
